Family meeting post ethics case consultation. All of patients adult children in attendance including [REDACTED] who is the patient advocate. Ann reports that she would like all of her siblings to have the ability to make decisions regarding care moving forward. All present verbalized appreciation for the efforts and participation of all those who attended the meeting. Patients eldest son Steve spoke through tears stating "I feel as if we have been very selfish, in wanting to keep her hear." emotional support provided, and family encouraged to verbalize their feelings. They requested and were provided with a description of how a compassionate ventilator wean takes place. Questions answered in detail. They are in agreement to meet daily for support, and assist in deciding the best time to wean patient with comfort measures, and allow a natural death. Will follow closely for support and decision making.
